

2009 CONFERENCE REGISTRATION FORM

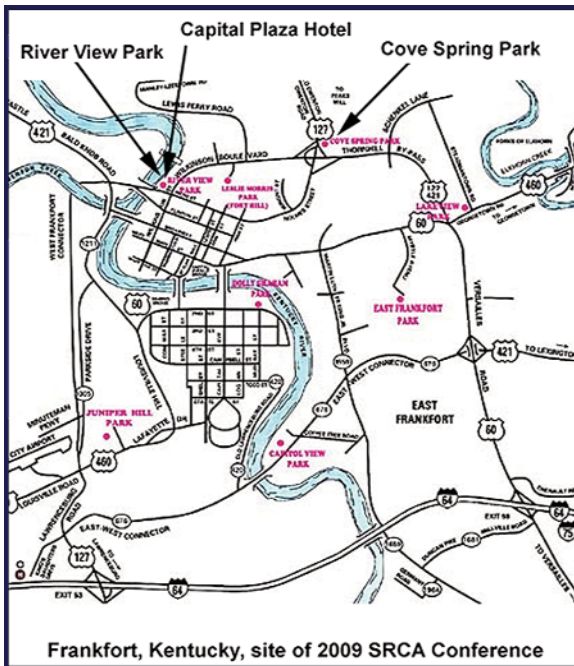

Frankfort, Kentucky, Wednesday, July 1st through Saturday, July 4th — Please Register Now!

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE: This year, the SRCA annual conference, Board Meeting and Members' Meeting will be held in conjunction with the Preservation Trades Network and the Timberframer's Guild "Preservation Rendezvous" in northern KY. Together, we're organizing a potentially low-cost outdoor event with available on-site camping, so bring the entire family! We, and inexperienced volunteers, will install a slate roof on a timber-frame picnic shelter to be erected in River View Park in Frankfort, the state capital, across from our hotel.

CONFERENCE HOTEL: Capital Plaza Hotel, located in historic downtown, 405 Wilkinson Blvd., Frankfort, KY 40601; Phone: 502-227-5100; Fax: 502-875-7147. We have reserved a limited block of rooms under "SRCA," so reserve yours now. Check in on Tuesday, June 30th and out on Sunday, July 5th if you're staying for the entire conference. Room rates are $79.00 plus tax for one to two people.

PRESENTERS: Please contact us ASAP to teach or display skills and knowledge related to slate or tile roofing, metal flashing or copper work in an outdoor tent canopy or indoor Powerpoint presentation. PTN has also scheduled an OSHA scaffolding safety course, shingle riving and shaving, square rule joinery, stone carving, tool handle making, wood carving, fall protection, lime mortar, blacksmithing, and more.

CAMPING: Camping will be at the nearby Cove Spring State Park, where food will be available for paid campers at the camp kitchen. Showers will also be available. There should be a shuttle to downtown.

BRING YOUR FAMILY: There will be two separate all-day (9-5) bus tours available on Friday. One is a "Historic Frankfort" tour and one is a "Frankfort Outdoors" tour; both include trips to Buffalo Trace Distillery for lunch. The Outdoors Tour includes a 1 hr. 45 min. guided canoe ride on the Kentucky River. The Historic Tour includes a guided tour of the Capitol. The cost for these tours is $20 per person. See more at slateroofers.org.

ENTERTAINMENT: Wednesday, July 1st: We have a primo band, Stirfry, booked for an evening SRCA informal reception at the conference hotel.
Thursday, July 2nd: Local music jam at the Cove Spring Park campground with local musicians. Bring your instrument!
Friday, July 3rd: Gala reception in our hotel ballroom including the SRCA, the PTN and the Timberframers Guild.
Saturday, July 4th: Finish slating and watch Frankfort's fireworks extravaganza!

The band Stirfry has an eclectic style which surges from gypsy-jazz to Latin to Celtic. A typical performance might start with a Celtic air and a jig, followed by an eastern European czardas, a jazz cover, some Latin grooves, and some Stirfry originals.
